7. COORDINATION WITH OTHER TOWN DEPARTMENTS

Any person filing a permit application with the Conservation Commission shall submit a copy thereof at the same time, by email, certified mail, or hand delivery, to the Select Board, Planning Board, DPW Engineering Department, Board of Appeals, Board of Health, and the Building Inspector. The person filing such application shall at the same time submit to the Conservation Commission a written notice that these copies have been submitted to these other departments. The Conservation Commission shall not take final action on an application until such boards and officials have had fourteen calendar days from their receipt to submit written comments, if any, to the Conservation Commission. The applicant shall have the right to receive such written comments, if any, and to respond to them, if desired, prior to final action.
