

9. REQUEST FOR WAIVER OR STAY FROM PAYMENT OF FEES

9. REQUEST FOR WAIVER OR STAY FROM PAYMENT OF FEES Any Owner of Distressed Property aggrieved by any fees due under this Bylaw may appeal to the Select Board or the Board's designee such fees by delivering to the Select Board within ten calendar (10) days of the date such fees are due a 206 written request for the Board to waive or to stay the payment of fees due pursuant to this Bylaw. The appeal request must be accompanied by a non-refundable appeal cost to be set by the Select Board pursuant to G.L. c. 40, § 22F. Upon the proper filing of an appeal, payment of the registration fee shall be stayed pending the outcome of the appeal. The Select Board or its designee may, in its, or their sole discretion, vote to waive or stay the payment of all or any part of any fees due to the Town pursuant to this Bylaw. If, upon appeal, the Select Board votes or its designee decides not to waive all fees due under this Bylaw, then the Owner, without further notice or action required by the Town, shall pay to the Town within ten (10) calendar days of such vote or decision the total amount of the fees due to the Town under this Bylaw. If, upon appeal, the Select Board votes or its designee decides to stay all or any part of the fees due to the Town under this Bylaw, then the Owner without further notice or action required by the Town, shall pay to the Town within ten (10) calendar days of such vote or decision the total amount of fees due.
